

Erap surgery called off

'This is not a time to be happy'

MANILA, Philippines — President Joseph Estrada's decision to undergo surgery for prostate cancer has been met with a mix of relief and concern. While some welcome the move as a necessary step for his health, others worry about the potential impact on the country's political and economic stability.

Strada's condition has been a topic of speculation for some time. He has been undergoing treatment at a private hospital in Manila, and his health has been a subject of concern for many Filipinos.

Some believe that the surgery is a necessary step to ensure that Strada can continue to lead the country. Others, however, are concerned about the potential for a power vacuum if the surgery results in a prolonged absence from office.

The decision to undergo surgery has been a difficult one for Strada. He has been in and out of the hospital several times, and his health has been a constant source of worry for his family and the public.

Despite the concerns, many Filipinos are hopeful that the surgery will be successful and that Strada will be able to return to his duties as president. They believe that his health is the most important factor in the country's future.

With friends and family, President Joseph Estrada and his wife, Leticia, are seen relaxing on a beach in Manila. The president is seen lying on a red blanket, looking towards the ocean.

¹⁷ The fact that the 1978-1980 data are so close to the 1970-1972 data suggests that the 1970-1972 data are not contaminated by the 1973-1974 oil price shock. This is also supported by the fact that the 1970-1972 data are not significantly different from the 1973-1974 data.

Special session may be a dud

By Cynthia B. Salinas
and Michael Lee Libano

BY THE TIME the special session convenes and adjourns.

The small, well-lit Senate chamber is filled with a quiet buzz of conversation as members of the legislative body.

For a moment, the chamber is a quiet place. The members of the Senate are seated in their assigned places, waiting for the session to begin.

But when the session begins, the chamber is filled with a loud buzz of conversation. The members of the Senate are now engaged in a heated debate over the proposed special session.

and the special session is a dud.

Many senators have been in a mood of optimism since the special session was called. They believed that the session would be a success.

Lucky stars shine on fortunetellers

By Ross B. Stevenson

After a long and hard year, it's time to look back on the year and think about the future. For many, the best way to do this is by looking at the stars.

The stars, it is believed, are the key to the future. Astrologers, the people who study the stars, believe that the stars can tell us about the future.

Fortune tellers, who use the stars to tell the future, are also known as astrologers. They believe that the stars can tell us about the future.

The concentration of quality jobs among female employees in the U.S. has declined in recent years, according to a new report by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. The report, "The Gender Gap in Quality Jobs," shows that the percentage of quality jobs held by women has fallen from 45 percent in 1980 to 38 percent in 1990. Quality jobs are defined as those that are high-paying, high-growth, and high-skill. The report also shows that the gender gap in quality jobs has widened in all major industries, including manufacturing, services, and government. The report suggests that the decline in quality jobs for women is due to a combination of factors, including the decline in the number of quality jobs available, the decline in the number of women in the workforce, and the decline in the number of women in high-paying, high-growth, and high-skill jobs.

1. The first step is to identify the problem. In this case, the problem is that the system is not working properly.

2. The next step is to gather information about the problem. This includes checking the logs, looking at the error messages, and talking to the users who are reporting the problem.

3. Once you have gathered information, you need to analyze it to determine the cause of the problem. This may involve looking at the system architecture, the code, and the data.

4. After you have identified the cause, you need to develop a solution. This may involve writing new code, changing the configuration, or upgrading the hardware.

5. Finally, you need to test the solution to make sure it works. This involves running the system and checking the logs to see if the problem has been resolved.

A major fire broke out at a market in Hanoi, Vietnam, on Sunday, killing at least 10 people and injuring dozens. The fire started in a stall selling food and spread to nearby buildings.

Japan emperor's only daughter Sayako to wed

The only daughter of the Japanese emperor, Crown Prince Akihito and Empress Michiko, Sayako will marry a commoner, a 31-year-old man from a wealthy family, on Sunday. The wedding will be held in a private ceremony at the residence of the couple. Sayako is the only daughter of the emperor and empress. She is 31 years old and has been engaged to the commoner for several years. The wedding is expected to be a significant event in Japan, as it marks the first time a member of the imperial family has married a commoner.

Massacre of 1000 Albanians died in Kosovo will be tried

A court in Kosovo has agreed to try the case of a mass killing of 1000 Albanians in 1998. The case involves the killing of 1000 Albanians by a Serbian soldier in 1998. The court is expected to hear the case in the coming months. The case is part of a series of trials aimed at bringing justice to the victims of the Kosovo conflict. The court is expected to hear the case in the coming months.

Retailers expect cash registers to ring often in 2005

By Tom Ichniowski

THE NEW YEAR has brought with it a sense of optimism and hope for the future. For many retailers, this optimism is reflected in their sales figures. In the first week of January, many retailers reported a significant increase in sales compared to the same period last year. This is a positive sign for the retail industry, which has been struggling for some time.

The retail industry is expected to see a strong performance in 2005. Analysts predict that sales will continue to grow, driven by a combination of factors, including a strong economy and a growing population. This optimism is reflected in the fact that many retailers are planning to expand their operations and invest in new technologies.

When Paris beckons

Japanese "think tanks" and analysts predict that the Asian financial crisis will lead to a new era of global economic integration.

Paris beckons. The French capital is the most romantic city in the world, and it's no wonder that so many people dream of visiting it. But what if you can't afford to travel to Paris? Well, now you can. With the help of a new technology, you can experience the city of love from the comfort of your home.

The new technology is called "Virtual Paris". It's a computer program that allows you to explore the city of Paris in a virtual environment. You can walk through the streets of Paris, visit the Louvre Museum, and even take a tour of the Eiffel Tower. The program is available for download on the Internet, and it's completely free of charge. So, if you're a fan of Paris, why not give Virtual Paris a try? You'll be amazed at how realistic it is.

Virtual Paris is a truly amazing experience. It's like being in Paris without leaving your home. The program is available for download on the Internet, and it's completely free of charge. So, if you're a fan of Paris, why not give Virtual Paris a try? You'll be amazed at how realistic it is.

Restoring the Christmas stressed-out skin

THE CHRISTMAS season is a time of stress and shopping. The high levels of stress and the long hours of shopping can take a toll on your skin, leaving it dry, irritated, and stressed out.

MANOVS (L)

Stress and shopping can take a toll on your skin, leaving it dry, irritated, and stressed out.

Only your pores
but different at night

The skin that you see in the morning is not the same as the skin you see at night. At night, your skin is more relaxed and its pores are more open.

At night, your skin is more relaxed and its pores are more open. This means that your skin is more receptive to the products you use at night.

Exfoliating, moisturizing
and relaxing

Exfoliating, moisturizing, and relaxing are the three key steps to restoring your skin after a stressful day.
